Re: YOUR Doc ID:HERE; YOUR Child Support Establishment CASE:HERE

Now comes john-henry: doe Authorized Representative for LEGAL FICTION JOHN H. DOE to dispute the claim that you have made against me because of violations of state and federal laws and to notice you (NAME of child support agent) who sometimes acts as CHILD SUPPORT OFFICER that Child support is in legal dispute due to violations of state and federal laws. Child support was declared unconstitutional in a Minnesota Supreme Court ruling for violating the separation of powers by the Minnesota Constitution in Article III Section 1.

Further child support agencies actions are also unconstitutional due to the lack of probable cause.

Furthermore CHILD SUPPORT was declared unconstitutional by the Supreme Court of Minnesota see: Holmberg v. Holmberg 588 N.W.2d 720. “The administrative child support process created by Minn. Stat. § 518.5511 (1996) violates the separation of powers doctrine by infringing on the district court's original jurisdiction, by creating a tribunal which is not inferior to the district court, and by permitting child support officers to practice law. Therefore, the statute is unconstitutional.”

Therefore your letter (enclosed) is being returned Third Party Affidavit of Mailing, Unknown addressee, Wrong venue, Mail fraud, Return to sender.

Sincerely,
